HISTORY OF ORGANIZATION

Laura is an avid reader and book collector. She has been actively building her personal library since 2015, with the earliest holding inherited from family. The collection brings together fantasy, science fiction, classics, manga, and non-fiction under a single household roof. In 2026 the collection was formally arranged and described as the Home Library Archive in order to preserve and make findable a body of holdings that would otherwise remain uncataloged.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

This collection contains three boxes of books spanning 1918 to 2025. Major genre groupings include young-adult fantasy, adult romantasy, dark fantasy manga, literary classics, and illustrated non-fiction. The collection is arranged by series-status — that is, by the relationship of each volume to its larger work — rather than by genre or author.

RESTRICTIONS

In-person access to the Home Library Archive is by appointment only. Access to delicate materials — including the 1918 P.F. Collier & Son edition of Adventures of Huckleberry Finn — is provided at the discretion of the supervising archivist: Laura.
